TODAY being the birthday of King Albert of Belgium the Belgian flag flies from the embassy staff and the Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier are entertaining a distinguished company at dinner to mark the anniversary. The guests have been asked to meet the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes. Among them will be the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, Rene Viviani, special envoy of the French Republic, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Henry, of Philadelphia; Miss Kate Cary, of New York, sister-in-law of Baroness de Cartier and a guest at the embassy, and Miss Betty Connolly, who has been spending the winter with the Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier.

There was also a dinner at the embassy last evening when the Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier entertained in honor of the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes. Those invited to meet the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister, Dr. Sze; Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, Senator Walter E. Edge, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Charles McCawley, Mrs. F. D. Ives, Mrs. Edson Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott, Mrs. George Ehle, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Miss Kate Cary, and Miss Betty Connolly, both guests at the embassy, and Mr. and Mrs. Raone Tilmont, of the embassy staff.

TO RECEIVE DELEGATES.
The President and Mrs. Harding will receive the delegates to the Salvation Army conference now being held here at the White House, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Later Mrs. Harding will be at home to a number of callers.

Mrs. Harding has accepted an invitation from the Congressional Club and will be the guest of honor at a tea at the club house on Friday afternoon, April 15, at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Oscar Underwood and Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins will pour tea, and Mrs. Harry C. Woodyard, chairman of the entertainment committee, is in charge of arrangements.

The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge will be entertained at dinner tonight by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Govin, who are having a small but delightful company of guests to meet them. Mrs. Govin will entertain at luncheon tomorrow in compliment to Miss Natalie Sellers Barnes and her fiancé, Mark Reid Yates.

Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes entertained at luncheon today for Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the Vice President, when the other guests included Mme. de Riano, Mme. Grouitch, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Frederic A. Delano, Mrs. Parker West, Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks, and Mrs. Sumner Welles.

Mrs. Keyes and Mrs. Homer Hoch will entertain at a tea Wednesday afternoon at the Congressional Club, in honor of the delegates who will entertain the convention of the League of American Pen Women, to be held here next week in connection with the book fair and ball.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand will return to the embassy this afternoon from New York, where they went to attend the annual dinner for the Fund for Devastated France, of which Miss Anne Morgan is one of the promoters.

The Ambassador and Rene Viviani, were special guests last night of Myron T. Herrick, who will be our next ambassador to France, at the aviators' ball at the Waldorf-Astoria. Gen. William E. Mitchell, accompanied by several pilots, flew from Bolling Field yesterday to attend the ball. He was honor guest at a dinner given last evening preceding the ball by Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoffman.

The Argentine Ambassador and

Mme. Le Breton, accompanied by Mrs. Le Breton's niece, Miss Lloveras, will return to Washington Monday from White Sulphur Springs, where the ambassador joined Mme. Le Breton and Miss Lloveras a few days ago.

The Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter were hosts at an informal luncheon today, entertaining in compliment to Hampton Gary, American minister to Switzerland, and Mrs. Gary, who are in Washington for a visit.

The Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Wainwright, assisted by Mrs. Lorenzo Gasser and Mrs. J. Dunoon Elliott, will receive this evening at the last of the series of army dances which will be given at Raucher's at 9 o'clock. Col. William E. Horton will make the introductions.

Among those entertaining dinner parties before the dance are Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Charles S. Farnsworth, who will have twenty guests dining with them. Maj. Gen. Peyton C. March and Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Amos A. Fries will be in the party. Brig. Gen. and Mrs. John L. Chamberlain will also give a dinner before the dance.

Mrs. Elphalest Fraser Andrews is entertaining a house party over the weekend for the marriage tomorrow of her son, Elphalest Fraser Andrews, Jr., and Miss Helen Cowles Tucker. They include Capt. Fitzhugh Lee Minnigerode, of New York, and his small daughter Miss Patricia Minnigerode, who will be flower girl, Beale Bordley Davidson, who is to be an usher, and his mother and sister Mrs. Edward Crawford Davidson and Miss Mary Davidson, of Elizabeth, N. J.

Mrs. Andrews will entertain at dinner this evening for the bride party and the out-of-town guests, the company numbering 30.

Miss Tucker and her bridesmaids were entertained at luncheon today by Mrs. Bradley Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell will take possession shortly of Twin Oaks, their country place on the outskirts of town, which has been occupied for the winter months by Col. and Mrs. Francis T. A. Junkin. Colonel and Mrs. Junkin will take a house in town for the early spring.

Mrs. Bell is in New York with her
